REMEMBER, when you approach the ballot-box on November 5th and cast a ballot for Judge LASSING that he is the same Judge LASSING, who paid $5,000 cash for the nomination; he is the identical Judge LASSING to whom $5,000 For Judgeship. the odoriferous General PERCY HALEY wrote the notorious letter "of even date" of March 21st, 1906, in which he addresses LASSING as

"Dear Judge: * * * You are right; it might embarrass us, too, and BECKHAM and all of us know it."

Here is the letter, which speaks for itself:

State of Kentucky,
Adjutant General's Office,
Frankfort, March 21st, 1906.
Judge John M. Lassing, Burlington, Ky.—Dear Judge: Your letter to hand. Don't be alarmed about The State Journal's charges of bribery against the rectifiers' or at Governor Beckham's hint for an investigation.

You are right; it might embarrass us, too, and Beckham and all of us know it. We know there has been dirty work among the rectifiers, but we are just going to bluff them to pass the tax bill, for we must have more money to meet the big increased appropriations, or the voters will kick out.

So you see outward looks don't count for much, and the Chief knows what he is doing.

We will get money by this deal, keep the country people in line, and then we'll get the rectifiers and others back, so as to still have the city organizations safe.

The temperance bill was broken the same way. We all fought that bill, but when we saw one had to pass, and that passing the County Unit Bill with all the big cities exempt will satisfy the liquor people in the cities, and the temperance folks in the country, and safely put the whole matter out of politics, which is pretty smooth work for the leaders.

We just delivered the goods to both sides.
Beckham will do now as then, and there'll be no investigation, either.
With kindest regards, I am, very truly your friend,
PERCY HALEY.

Remember what you are doing when you cast a ballot for Judge LASSING, a member of the highest judicial tribunal of Kentucky, who stands in with the Frankfort gang of fast and loose machine politicians, who bought his nomination for $5,000. It is true that the Democratic Committee returned LASSING his $5,000 check, but the goods were delivered and all opposition scared off.

The nomination to the high office of Appellate Judge was practically sold to the highest bidder.

And then The Kentucky State Journal and other Goebelite newspapers, scoff at the Republicans for daring to nominate a candidate against LASSING on the plea that Kentucky should have a non-partisan judiciary.

A non-partisan Democratic judiciary is such an impossible anomaly that we would better call it a "damn barren ideal."

Will you put in a ballot for a man who plays politics with PERCY HALEY and SOUTH TRIMBLE and gives his check for $5,000 for the highest judicial office in the Commonwealth?

BOTH GOOD CHARGERS.

Tommy—Pop, what is the difference between a D. D. and an M. D.?

Tommy's Pop—The difference is, my son, that one preaches and the other practices.

"I paid a dollar to hear a lecture last night," remarked the bachelor.

"Why don't you get married, and then you would get all the lectures you want for nothing," said the married man.

MAN IN HIS HOME

MR. GRISTLETON PHILOSOPHIZES ON SUBJECT.

Thinks There Are Few Who Are Sweet Abroad and Sour When in the Bosom of Their Family.

"You know," said Mr. Gristleton, "when I hear it said of a man that he's good as he is to everybody else, but you ought to see how he treats his folks, I don't set it down right away that the man so described must be necessarily a brute or a sneak. You see, if he is going to show peevishness anywhere, home is the proper place for it; there it can do his family and himself the least harm. It is essential to his success in life that he should put up a good front and show a smiling face to the world.

"As a matter of fact the terms are contradictory, for a man can scarcely be permanently ill tempered at home and yet present even a veneer of grace sufficient to deceive abroad. A man is likely to reveal himself at all times for what he really is; to be, in the main, either good or bad everywhere; but if he have a streak of weakness in him, why, that I would prefer he should keep for home, and so, I think would his family.

"They want him to make a good impression in the world, to appear everywhere to advantage, and they are ready to put up with his shortcomings, to make allowances, and after all they don't have to make so many, and they know his ways and they can charm away his crossness easily enough.

"The truth is that while there may be men who are sweet abroad and savages at home there are not many such; most men are pretty decent, and these stories we hear about men who are so good to other people and so mean to their own are likely to be without any real foundation or greatly exaggerated or born out of a chance disclosure.

"Jones' family, for instance, know him for what he is, a strong, vigorous, able man who keeps his temper and behaves himself admirably in the world, though there he has much to contend with; and they are willing, more than willing, that he should forget his troubles and even lose his temper occasionally at home if he wants to. It gives them an opportunity to soothe and comfort him and be good to him and strengthen him. They not only don't mind, but they really like him to be natural and human; they are not disturbed because he has some failings like the rest of us, and they know he'll be serene and strong again in a minute.

"So I take little stock in the stories we hear occasionally of this man or that who is said to be good as he pleases but a sour chap with his own. You can set it down for a fact that the man who has the strength and courage and self-control to bear himself like a man abroad through the day is, as a rule, and despite any transient pettinesses that he may there reveal, pretty sure to be a man whom they are right glad to see at night at home."

Betrayed by Clumsiness.
"We have to constantly keep on the lookout for people who, in order to get trade prices, pretend to be in the business," said the head of one of the New York wholesale wall paper houses. "They are not always easy to detect, either, for some are pretty well posted on the subject, and are hard to trip up. But I caught one the other day. He claimed to be a paper hanger from the west and he wanted something 'hang up' in style, at trade prices. He talked so knowledgeably about wall paper, that I had about made up my mind to give him the discount when a little thing happened that put me wise. He attempted to roll up again some paper he had spread out on the floor to examine. The way he did it was a revelation. He took hold of it and mangled it about as if he were kneading bread. I never saw anything less like the professional way of doing it. I gave him the discount, all right, but up instead of down."

Walford's Deduction.
Dallas Welford, in an interview just previous to his sailing to spend his vacation at home, was asked: "What makes a comedian?" With an expression that was a cross between pity and annoyance Mr. Welford answered: "Comedians are born, not made; if they were made there would be no unfunny comedians." Which goes to show that aside from being a comedian Mr. Welford is a good imitation philosopher.

It Makes Little Difference.
Hatcheller.—I suppose it's mighty expensive to have your child sick in bed so long?
Pharmley.—Yes, but then if he were well and hearty he'd be wearing out clothes.—Philadelphia Press.

Safe.
"I don't know whether I'll be able to keep my place or not; the missus likes me, but the master don't."
"Then you're all right; but if the master liked you it would be all off."

BARS LIQUOR MEN

Dealers Can No Longer Become Masons in Kentucky

By the decisive vote of 430 to 72, the delegates and representatives in session at the Grand Lodge meeting of the Kentucky Masons at Louisville, voted Wednesday to adopt as an amendment to the Constitution the resolution of James E. Wilhelm of Paducah, prohibiting the entrance of any person engaged in the liquor business into any of the Order's Lodges. It had been predicted that the amendment would pass, but it was expected that a large amount of opposition would be met with when it came to a vote.

The resolution of Mr. Wilhelm is not de facto in its nature. It became effective upon all the Lodges in Kentucky with its formal incorporation into the Constitution yesterday. It provides that no distiller or saloonkeeper shall be admitted to membership in the Grand Lodge or any of the Lodges of Masons in the state. Any man who makes his livelihood from the sale of liquor is included in the resolution. A man employed by a distillery company if not engaged in the actual sale of liquor, does not come within the scope of the amendment.

G. W. Gaines, a Master Mason of Lawrenceburg, who voted negatively on the resolution, after its passage, introduced a new resolution, excluding everyone from membership to the Order who was known to take a drink of whiskey. As a ripple of laughter went around the Grand Lodge Mr. Gaines declared that he had proposed the resolution in earnest and that he desired that it be put to a vote. It was hurriedly put to a vote and passed.

LAI D TO REST

Funeral of Chris. D. Russell Yesterday Largely Attended—Many Floral Tributes

The funeral of the late Christopher Dudley Russell yesterday afternoon was one of the largest that has been seen in this city for years. The fraternal orders of which he was a member turned out in large numbers, there being possibly two hundred men in line, besides a cortege of sorrowing relatives and friends following in sixteen hacks. The floral offerings were many and exceedingly beautiful in design, that of the Order of Eagles and the employees of M. C. Russell Co., being the most notable. The design of the former was "Gates Ajar," composed of carnations, cypripediums, roses, amilax and ferns; the latter represented a "Broken Wheel," and was made of carnations, roses, cypripediums, and maiden hair ferns. The outpouring of his fellow-citizens attested in a manner the degree in which the deceased was held.

What the School Did for Arthur Woodmansee

WE are proud of his record and that of hundreds of others like him, because they prove that the right kind of a boy or girl will find the Bartlett Commercial College a stepping stone to success.
Read what Arthur Woodmansee says: "When I was at the school you remember my taking the Civil Service Exam. Well, I passed fine and when I was a week out of school, I got the appointment at $60. Now I am getting $70 and have a promise for a raise on the 1st. I've got an elegant job in the Naval Bureau of the Navigation Department. Your school deserves the credit for my success." We want you to realize that the Bartlett Commercial College Cincinnati, Ohio has years of uninterrupted success behind it. For years it has been producing the kind of Bookkeepers and Stenographers that succeed because they are trained to succeed. That's why its graduates are sought by the best business houses in Cincinnati and elsewhere.
Send for the catalogue, which tells the story of a successful school.

The City Council at Augusta, by a vote 3 to 2, voted down the proposition of Messrs. Kirk and Dickson of this city, who wanted to rent Russell Hall at that place for the purpose of using it for a skating rink.

LITTLE BABY CURED OF ECZEMA

Parents Applied to Hospitals and Doctors but Could Get No Relief—Grew Worse Under Doctor's Prescription—Friends Recommended Cuticura—Result

A SPEEDY AND PERMANENT CURE

"We express to you herewith our best thanks for the cure of our baby from eczema. The eczema appeared when the child was three months old. We applied to several doctors and hospitals, each of which gave us something different every time, but nothing brought relief. A physician recommended a salve which we threw into the fire after two days' use as the eczema became worse so that the baby scratched his face. At last, one of our friends recommended us Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. A few days afterwards improvement could be noted. Since then we have used nothing but Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and now the baby is six months old and is quite cured. All that we used was one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes Cuticura Ointment, costing in all $1.25. Even the poorest man can pay that instead of throwing it into the doctor's lap. I myself only make twelve dollars a week as a teamster, but I recommend the Cuticura Remedies strongly to all mothers whose children suffer from such diseases. They are cheap, harmless and good. C. F. Kara and Wife, 343 East 65th Street, New York, March 30, 1906."

FOR SORE HANDS

Soak the hands on retiring, in a hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap. Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, and in severe cases spread the Ointment on thin pieces of old linen or cotton. Wear during the night old, loose, kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and holes cut in the palms, or a light bandage of old cotton.

C. AND O. FREIGHT DEPOT

Burglarized Last Night But the Cash Had Been Placed in Big Safe

Some time last night thieves gained an entrance to the office of the C. and O. freight depot by breaking a large pane of glass where they made their entrance and exit.

The cash drawer was prized open and ransacked, but fortunately, the day's receipts had been transferred to the safe in the passenger depot, and the cracksmen had their labor and time expended for nothing.

A child's money-bank containing fourteen cents was left undisturbed.

The job is thought to have been the work of local talent, and Chief Ort has his dragnet out for the would-be yeggmen.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Maysville Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching, With distressing urinary disorders, Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Maysville people endorse this claim: Mrs. Mary Thomas, 204 Limestone street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I am only too pleased to confirm the statement I made in the spring of 1900 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the years that have elapsed since I made that statement I have had occasion to give Doan's Kidney Pills a further trial and I have found that it requires only a few doses to ward off attacks of kidney trouble. I can also point to the case of my boy, twelve years old, who at the time I first used Doan's Kidney Pills was troubled a great deal with weakness of the kidneys and could not control the secretions properly. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he improved rapidly under their use. The relief he found has proved lasting and from his experience and mine I am certainly warranted in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."
